

Australian Province of the Society of Jesus – Professional Standards Consultative Panel

Ms Kay Lancefield

Kay Lancefield is a registered psychologist who has worked in the forensic field for some thirty plus years and over the past twenty years has focused work in the field of the assessment and treatment of sexually abusive behaviours.

Her recent practice has included professional supervision, individual counselling, assessment and treatment of adolescents with harmful sexual behaviours, consultancy work in the areas of establishing treatment services, program development and staff training to Government and non-Government agencies.

Kay holds a Bachelor of Arts, a Graduate Diploma in Applied Social Psychology and a Master of Psychology (Forensic). She is a member of the Australian Psychological Society, a member of the College of Forensic Psychologists, member of the Australian and New Zealand Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers and a member of the Australian and New Zealand Association of Psychiatry, Psychology and Law.